Tuition

Tuition is charged for enrollment in courses offered by UoNA. The university charges tuition on a per credit hour basis and the cost for each program is dependent on the number of credit hours required to meet graduation requirements. Individual student costs may vary depending on transfer credit or additional costs for repeated courses. The tuition rate is dependent on the program in which the student is enrolled. Tuition and fees are established/reviewed annually.

The University reserves the right to adjust tuition and fees as necessary to maintain a sound program for students. UoNA will provide students with no less than 30 days' notice of any changes in tuition and fees.

Administrative Fee for International Student Approved Quarter Off (Vacation Term)

The University does not charge extra fees for its applied learning curriculum within each program. However,
